

Git commands

Show only the changed words with color

```
$ git diff --color-words
```

Shows change on specific commit

```
$ git show commit_number
```

You can add the flags --color-words

Shows difference between 2 commits

```
$ git diff older_commit_number..HEAD
```

Skips git add .

```
$ git commit -am 'commit text'
```

Opens editor to add multiline commit messages

```
$ git commit
```

save and close file in editor after adding commit text

Shows commits on one line each

```
$ git log --oneline
```

discard changes of files not staged

```
$ git checkout -- .
```

discard all changes

```
$ git checkout file
```

discard changes for this file

Unstage a staged file

```
$ git reset HEAD file
```

or unstage all

```
$ git reset HEAD
```

Add changes to the last commit, or change commit message of the last commit

```
$ git commit --amend -m 'commit text'
```

Revert commit

```
$ git revert commit_number
```

Remove untracked files

```
$ git clean -n
```

tells what it would do

```
$ git clean -f
```

remove untracked files